You get even more that you didn’t specifically ask for. Not only all of that, but you get a substantial discount if you register prior to the event. Wow!! What a deal. But the really significant event is the celebration of fifty years of GKK existence – of fifty years of GKK history. Fifty years is something very special that we have accomplished together and relatively few other organizations can legitimately claim. This Fifty Year Celebration expresses our sense of accomplishment, our camaraderie, our belief in the future of the GKK, and recognition of our heritage. We’ll never be fifty again. This is a unique opportunity for us to celebrate who we are. Please join us for this very special event. You get what you ask for.
